A novel 'venetian ballet in the first set was remarkable for the original and pictures queres may may be for the artistic groupings and novements of the dances."

The New York papers sil speak in high terms of the piece. The Moreo, one of the severest of critics, says; "Clio' is drawing large audiences to Nillo's Garden. The cust elected to represent Mr. Campbell's play is one of great strongth. No spectacle has find a better carps of drawing arige audiences to see the second of the production of the season; after careful and conscientions rehearsals by the author. As a spectacular play it may be set down as quite a success, and "Clio' may be put down for a long run here and on the road."

CHEEK.—On Tuesday morning. September.

Dr. Robert H. Gunnell, residing at No. 925 B street southwest, was returning to her B street southwest, was returning to her home, baving made a purchase, she was followed by a trutal booking negro footpad, who walked up close behind her as she was passing the lumber-yard on Virginia avenue, mar Ninth street, and struck her a blow on the head with his dat, felling her to the ground. He then matched a pocket-book containing $5.30, which she held in her hand, and made his escaped. The little girl severaned lendly for help, but no one responded. She went to her home and reported the circumstances to her father and described the negro, who was about 20 years of age. The police have secured South Washington for the hunte, but have as yet been unable to explain him.

Cameron and J. Q. Morrison, Cameron and J. Q. Morrison, Mears. John Cameron and J. Q. Morrison were the lucky owners of one-fifth of ticket No. 48,954 in The Louisiana State Lottery which drew the $23,900 prize in the Drawing of July 14. This does away with the reasoning of those crying fraud, because these gentlemen are too well-known to admit of a thought that they would lend themselves as parties to deceive the public.
The fact is, they held the ticket and it has been promptly eashed and our good feiends wear broad smiles because of their good luck.—[Wichita Falls (Tex.) Herald,
